NEW YORK, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1892.

I Want That $500.00.

I estimate that the average number of copies of The Worldprinted per day during 1892 will be found to have been ...

PRICE ONE CENT.

JAY GOULD

The Great Financier Passed Away at 9.15 To-Day.

CONSCIOUS TO THE LAST.

End Came Peacefully in the Room Where His Wife Died.

all the Members of His Family Received His Farewell Glance and Smile.

Little Apparent Effect of His Death in the Stock Market or Wall Street.

Mr. Gould's Fortune Estimated to Be Not Less Than One Hundred Million Dollars.

Jay Gould, the famous financier and railroad magnate, died at his home, 579 Fifth avenue, at 9.15 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Gould's death was apparently painless. was surrounded by all the members of his floor of his home in the extension in the rear Gould $50,000. of the building, just over the conservatory, the same room in which his wife died. A few moments before the end Mr. Gould one, smiled at each and all was over.

the public mind having been prepared for the leum. The tomb itself cost $100,000, and news by the publication in yesterday's Even- the first member of the family it received ING WORLD of the facts of his critical illness, was Mra. Gould, who died Jan. 13 last. the announcement that the end had come | Rev. Dr. Paxton, paster of the church a created intense excitement among business which Mr. Gould was a worshipper, called at said to have been exhaustion caused by hem- | World reporter that the death-bed scene | the corner on the second floor, were turned | 000, worth in the market $5,500,000; Manorrhages from the stomach, of which he is was most affecting. He corroborated the Mr. George Gould, had retired, leaving Dr. $8,000,000, worth about $10,400,000; about reported to have had three. The first was statement made by another friend of the Munn and the nurses to watch the patient. Thanksgiving Day, the next two days later, family as to Mr. Gould calling his children to and the third last Wednesday. His children bis bedside and bidding them each good-by.

"The end was peaceful and painless," said doctor would return home, but confirmed the washand confirmed the with holding over $12,000,000 or the bedside. Mrs. Munn did not know when the doctor would return home, but confirmed the with holding over $12,000,000 or the bedside. With holding over $12,000,000 or the bedside and bidding them each good-by.

"The end was peaceful and painless," said doctor would return home, but confirmed the best condition possible for any emergency.

That the death of Mr. Gould had not been | could be expected under their griet."

It was just 9.20 o'clock when Dr. Munn About the same time a builetin announcing close friend of Mr. Gould. the fact of Mr. Gould's death was posted in | The place of interment, Dr. Paxton said, the Western Union Building. For fully twenty minutes after this, re- probably be buried beside his wife in Wood- Paxton drove up to the house and hurriedly porters who called at Mr. Gould's house were

It came from 35 West Forty-fourth street. Main is sexton of Dr. Paxton's church, at The presence of this wagon confirmed beyond doubt the presence of death, and a crowd began to congregate on the street and stare mained downstairs conducting some of the at the curtained windows.

The undertaker's assistants lifted out a large ice-box covered with black cloth and Within half an hour after the death was announced District Messenger boys were burrying in and out of the rear entrance. They had been called to carry the news to the immediate friends of the family.

of private carriages. The vehicles drew up at the door, the occupants stepped out, and mounting the steps of the mansion, left their cards and condolences.

Chauncey Depew passed the house on his way downtown, accompanied by two little his illness, which was said to be hemorgirls, about ten minutes after Mr. rhage of the stomach, a though Dr. Munn, Gould's death had been announced. He stopped and asked a group of reporters if Mr. Gould was still alive, and as to the condition of Mr. Gould. When told that the great financier was dead, he re-entered his carriage. An Evening World reporter caught him as he was leaving and asked what effect, in his opinion, Mr. Gould's death would have on Wall street affairs. His reply was:

quietly. There is no change."

and Miss Annie Gould. Dr. Munn, who had not clapsed from the announcement of the couple received were many and beautiful. day, was also present.

At 8 o'clock last evening it was said that flood that followed. Rev. Dr. John R. Paxton, of the West Pres-byterian Church, where Mr. Gould attends services, called at the sick man's bedside, but "None whatever. Men are individuals; remained only a little while. At that hour property doesn't die. Mr. Gould's property is left in just the same shape as it was so weak that he was unable to speak. before his death, and Mr. George Gould is perfectly competent to take up the burden first official information of the evening. It where his father laid it down."

Mr. Edwin Gould lives just back of the Gould mansion, at 1 East Forty-seventh family called, but few obtained any definite street. The curtains of this house were information. At 11 o clock it was reported drawn immediately after Mr. Edwin Gould that Mr. Gould was unconscious and at midentered on leaving his father's house.

The Gould family tomb is in Woodlawn Cometery and stands in a plot comprising an He was conscious at the last, and his bedside | acre of ground overlooking Woodlawn Lake. It is known as the "Lakeview Plot" and is a circular, gently sloping mound in the finest Mr. Gould died in a room on the second location of the cemetery. The plot cost Jay

The mausoleum is a copy of the Parthenon and was designed by F. T. Fitz Mahony. It is built throughout of Westerly (R. L.) expressed a desire to bid his family good-by. granite, and its dimensions are: 22 feet Then he looked tenderly into the face of each wide, 33 feet long and 20 feet high to the apex of the roof.

There are twenty catacombs in the mauso

GEORGE J. GOULD.

The direct cause of Mr. Gould's death is
The direct cause of Mr. Gould's death is Said to have been exhaustion caused by hemGEORGE J. GOULD.

At 1 O'Clock this morning.

At 1 O'Clock this morning all the lights in the house except those in the sick-room, in Missouri Pacific to the amount of $10,000.

Missouri

looked for so soon by his children and by his Rev. Dr. Paxton said, also, that the funeral and drove away in a carriage. physician, Dr. Munn, is evident by the early services will be held at the Gould residence morning reports given out at the house to the next Monday either at 10 o'clock in the morn- Gould was sinking fast. A little more definite Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific tonds were effect that the patient's condition was ap- ing or I o'clock in the afternoon, as may be decided by George Gould and his sister Helen. called his wife up on the telephone and noti- rites by Rev. Dr. Chancellor MacCracken, of to ensue during the day or not. fied her that Mr. Gould had just passed away. the University of the City of New York, a had not been decided upon yet, but he will and shortly before so clock Rev. Dr. John R.

It was this afternoon definitely settled that Undertaker John Main's wagon was driven in the funeral service Dr. Paxton and Chan-this time stopped to make inquiries. up to the Gould house at 10.35 this forenoon. cellor McCracken will be assisted by Rev. Roderick Terry, of 169 Madison avenue. The stream of callers, most of whom left cards. choir from Dr. Paxton's church will also be present and render the singing. Dr. Munn remained in the house throughout the forenoon. Around 12 o'clock the callers were very numerous. Col. Hain readies who were latimate friends of the family to:Miss lieien Gould's apartments, upstairs. None, of the callers remained over a few minutes, and the great majority simply left

The undertaker put crape on the doorbel

MR. GOULD'S LAST HOURS.

Watched at His Pedeide.

From information given out at the residence of Jay Gould, 570 Fifth avenue, this morning Yesterday's Evening World told of the steady increase in the alarming symptoms of his attending physician, declined to make public any particulars regarding the sufferer's complaint Up to 7 o'clock last night the butler at the

It was said that Mr. Gould was conscious, but

At 9 o'clock last evening Mr. George Gould read simply : " My father is very low."

During the evening many friends of the night that he was sinking rapidly.

the corner on the second floor, were turned 000, worth in the market $5,500,000; Mariow. The household, with the exception of hattan Railway stock to the amount of in which he had been engaged, and he re-When day broke this morning Mr. Gould sourt Pacific system, or somewhere in the Gould's death ! I do not see any good reason was yet alive, but Dr. Munn was still at his neighborhood of $30,000,000. He is also he, "and the children bore up as well as report that he had been with Mr. Gould all $7,000,000 to-day, and held besides first-class night.

At 7.15 Mrs. Edwin Gould left the house and controlled by him to the value of about At 7.45 it was said at the house that Mr.

Rev. Dr. Paxton will be assisted in the last he could not say whether the worst was likely in recent years his yearly income has been People were stirring in the Gould mansion at a very early hour this morning. Shortly after daylight the handsome face curtains i the windows on the upper floors were raised, passed in. The butler came out a few minutes later. He said that Mr. Gould was very low, and many persons passing the house at road, was the most conspicuous, and he said, to inquire about the dying millionaire.

said, " and I hoped for the best." Several small groups of men were quickly several small groups of melt were quited; some collected on the opposite corner. As the Eith Kingdon a well-known sni very beautinutes after to o'clock flew by, it became the distribution of the control of the contro evident that something unusual was happen- toys and a girl. They recently moved into was gentle, good hearted, unassuming, quiet. ing. A lady who looked like Mrs. George their new mansion at Fifth avenue and Sixiy-Ho had a been sense of justice, never torgot Gould stood at the corner window on the seventh street, which Mr. sound purchased of a friend nor a service. He was not at all second floor, but harriedly turned around and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff for $305,000. disappeared. Soon afterward the massive maken front door was opened, and a man who a log car in in the classifis, in the midst of a play begins, but he was always perfectly was recognized as a messenger came down picturesque tract of 550 acres. There is has deep open to his fricture. oaken front door was opened, and a man who His Children and His Physician the steps. His face was flushed, and to a group of reporters he excitedly remarked and a lake that is fairly alive with a ec. led Mr. Gould died at 0 15 o'clock."

> concerning Mr. Gould's death, she professed utter ignorance.

Nobody else passed out of the house and it ment of the cause of death. The butler con- ninth street, Oct. 21 last. The marriage nothing except that "Mr. Gould is resting with the note, saying that Dr. Munu could begun less than a year before, and the formal

When evening came, however, all of Mr. Dr. Munn, as soon as his patient had June 21. brought into the house. It was the first of a

ON THE STOCK MARKET.

Little Excitement and but Trfing

Fluctuations in Prices. When the Stock Exchange opened there was no great apparent excitement. The fluctuations in the Gould stocks were not particularly important. Missouri Pacific naturally reflected the effect of Mr. Gould's death more quickly than other stocks. It yielded 1% at the opening, talling to 54, but quickly recovered to 55. Union Pacific opened 1% lower at 35%, but railled to 36%. Western Union started 5% lower, at 85, but rapidly advanced to 85%. Manuattan between the pacific pacific and was a lower of 15% and Walland Elevated was 38 lower, at 12816, and Wabash preferred fell off 14. St. Louis Southwestern preferred, of which road Edwin Gould is list showed slight declines at the opening.

The transactions in stocks during the first half hour of business were only a little larger than usual, aggregating 72,492 shares of listed stocks and 12,475 of unlisted. It was reported on the street that Mr. Gould had put into the hands of trustees the bulk of his property, to be held during the life of his children. The three stocks of which his idings are thus specially trusteed are Western Union, Manhattan Elevated and

Mr. John T. Perry, an intimate friend of Union Telegraph Company, said this morn-

" Mr. Gould stated recently that he had trusteed his holdings of Mannattan Elevated. Western Union and Missouri Pacific, and If this is so, the Gould interest in these stocks is tied up, and they cannot be dumped upon the market, and the prices are likely to

The Gould boys, George and Edwin, have been credited for a long time with being "short" of stocks, and it is said that Addison Cammack, the well-known operator, has already been bearing the market on this knowl

MR. GOULD'S FORTUNE.

Estimated by His Business Friends at Not Less Than $100,000,000. Just what Jay Gould's wealth amounted to has always been a matter of interesting speculation. Those nearest to him in business transactions have always been in doubt as to his holdings and investments, apart from railroad stock and bonds, but the dead

nulti-millionaire's friends interviewed to-day agreed that his fortune will foot up about The securities which are known to be held one-third of all the bonds issued by the Mis-railway mortgage bonds of roads not owned $3,000,000. The amount of Jay Gould's holdings in the information was secured through a friend of never known. His house on Fifth avenue and Mr. George Gould, to whom the latter had palattal country home at Irvington are worth sent word that his father was very low, but jortunes in themselves, and it is believed that between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000.

THE GOULD CHILDREN.

Heiress in America.

George J. Gould, upon whom, as the eldest his father's vast interests, is still a young like a fighting cock." man, being a little over thirty. Instead of going to college he entered his father's office morning, lit at night, or vice versa. Towards 9 o'clock there was an unbroken as soon as he became of age, and in an instream of callers, most of whom left cards. credibly short time had mastered the mysCol. Hain, General Manager of the Elevated teries of mance. He has frequently startled There may be a little fall, but they will come the case. Tost Wall street with his operations, actably so in up again by their own meritmerely stopped on his way downtown, he said, to inquire about the dying millionaire.

"Mr. Gould was a good friend of mine," he younger Gould's skilful man) juilation of the learned all his businss methods, and they can Wizard's millions.

Shortly before that event he married Miss a game preserve, stocked with elk and deer, owned one or two) achts.

Mr. Gould also owned the Grand Operamilitonaire. Edwin, Jay Gould's second son, was married to Miss Saran Cantine Shrady, the step-was concluded by the newspaper men to send caughter of Dr. George F. Shrady, Gen. lovacie disposition and temperament. front door of the Gould recidence would say sented to deliver the message, but returned was the culmination of a courtable that had announcement of the engagement was made Gould's family were gathered at his home. passed away, hurried to the telephone and Rev. Robert Collyer performed the cere-Among them were Mr. and Mrs. George notified his wile of that fact. Then messages mony, which was witnessed by 110 invited

Among them were Mr. and Mrs. George notified his wile of that fact. Then messages mony, which was witnessed by 110 byticed as to the condition of Mr. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould, Miss Helen were sent down to Mr. Gould's office in the guests. All the Gould's were present, includ-Gould, Mr. Howard Gould, Mr. Harold Gould Western Union Building, and an hour had ing Jay Gould, and the presents the bridge Queens County's Grand Jury Finds One Life Lost in Brooklyn's Early by George Gould.

President, advanced 4, to 124. The general tall, dark and swarthy, and looks like a Span- The Governor and the other parties named ail, dark and swarthy, and coassail, dark and swarthy, and coaspools.

Seventy-first Reginent and inherited about $1,200,000 from his mother's estate. He has been associated with his father in railroad enterprises.

Of the younger of Mr. Gould's children the one holding the most interesting position in the public eyes is Miss Helen Gould. She is the elder daughter, but has been "out" in society only about a year. The other younger children are Miss Hannah and Howard Gould. He is found to the found of the has been features, and has a pronounced brunette. Her factures, and has a pronounced brunette. Her marked by conversation. She is undoubtedly the richest beires in the United States, and that he with the fact has been in the case and the fact has been in the case and the states and the stat

Edwin, and has been in business for a few years only.

BUSINESS MEN'S COMMENTS.

No Fears that Financial Disturbance Will Follow Mr. Gould's Death. Several well-known Wall street operators financiers, who have been associated with Mr. Gould personally or in a business way, were asked to-lay as to the probable said to an Events a World reporter:

"Mr. Gould's death is a great less to the whole country, as his was acknowledged to be one of the leading minds of the country.

It has been said that there was but one Jay licketts. "And in all likelihood Fauikner Fairwy stitors at Central Park this morning."

Silas Fauikner.

There is no motive known at the hospital for the suicide. "That he committee suicide is certain from be one of the leading minds of the country. It has been said that there was but one Jay licketts." And in all likelihood Fauikner.

Some Miscreant Daubs Several Monuments on the Mail.

Fairwysitors at Central Park this morning. said to an Evening World reporter in his name are estimated at the following. It has been said that there was but one Jay tained his interest down to the last moment. What will be the effect on values of Mr. Mr. Gould has for years had his affairs put in Heart Trouble Carries Off One of that might come, and I think his will will > whelmed by the sad news of his death to situation."

then broker, then partner to Jay Gould, was much affected by the news of his death. He said, feelingis:

"I saw Mr. Gould just two weeks ago today. He had rosy cheeks and was in good son, will naturally tall the management of spirits. He said to me, laughingly, "I feel

"His death will have no effect on the mar-

Festde his town house, Mr. Geo. Gould owns suspicious, but he nad to guard against in se trout. He was a devoted sportsman, and were jew, He liked the theatre, especially comedy presentations.

FLOWER IS INDICTED. BURNED LIKE PITCH.

Against the Governor.

Cause of Complaint.

taining Nuisances.

Long Island tort. N. Y., Dec. 2.— A spark from a tramp's pipe is believed to it was announced this morning that have started the fire in the tenement at 310 RDWIN GOULD. the Grand Jury had found true Flushing avenue, Brooklyn, which resulted After a wedding trip to the South. Edwin bills against Gov. Plower, his sister, early this morning in the death of one per-Gould and his wife moved into the house 1 Mrs. Schiey and the administrators of both son and the injury of five others. Fast Forty-seventh street, formerly occupied the Union College and Rapelye estates for by George Gould. maintaining nuisances detrimental to the ghan, was arrested.

Edwin Gould is about thirty years old, is public health. Following is a list

He played on a guitar and sang until Mr. White retired, when Faulkner also lay down upon the lounge and presently went to sleep. At about 3 o'clock this morning Mr. White nearly and on Faulkner's awaking bade him turn on his side, as he was shoring too loud. Faulkner obeyed and Mr. White returned to his bed, soon atterwards failing asleep. When he arcse at 7 o'clock this morning he was horified to find that Faulkner was dead. In the pocket of the dead men's coat was found an unaddressed note with these words. "In case I die please notify J. E. Hedges, 41 West Twenty-sixth street, and C. W. Woolever, Danville, N. Y. "I leave all my effects to my mother, whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I leave all my effects to my mother, whom I leave all my effects to my mother, whom I leave all my effects to my mother; whom I more with their three chilitived on the first floor w

Russell Sage, for many years the closest I love dearly.

Young Faulkner's mother is living in DanPipe among some excelsior.

Young Faulkner's mother is living in DanVille. His father was the late State Senator

The Coroner has been notified.

LANDLORD GARRISON DEAD.

the Grand Union's Proprietors.

W. D. Garrison, of Ford, Garrison & Co., one of the proprietors of the Grand Union Hotel, not be accounted for. at Forty-second street and Park avenue, died at the hote; this forenoon.

Mr. Garrison was a victim of heart disease, that a reward will be offered for the detecand during the past four weeks he has been confined to his room. tecame one the proprietors. caves one daughter, Mrs. Dr. Young, or RICHENSTEIN'S ACCOUNTS.

nies Any Shortage.

man. He has coached his boys thit they have learned all his busines methods, and they can go on in their father's own way. George is particularly like his father.

Personally Mr. Gould was the sweetest man to get along with that I ever knew. He was gentle, goad-hearred, una-sampling, quiet. He had a heen sense of justice, investing a granted a percentage of the control of the man to get along with that I ever knew. He had a heen sense of justice, investing a granted a percentage of the control of the man to get along with that I ever knew. He had a heen sense of justice, investing a granted a percentage of the man to get along with the man to get along a long the particularly like his far her.

Personally Mr. Gould was the sweetest man to get along with that I ever knew. He had a heen sense of justice, in ver torget a friends and fatterers, and a minimum of the particular in the bay hear life and the prior of the man simple of the man to guard against has a friends and fatterers, and a minimum of the particular in the bay hear life of the particular in the particular in the bay hear life of the particular in the particular in the bay hear life of the particular in the bay hear life The species, but he was always perfectly open to his friends.

"He was the nest generous man in Wall prior to Set, and the errithest set almost generous man in Wall prior to Set, and the errithest set almost generous man in Wall prior to Set, and the errithest set also a canstreet. Plain in his taste, his amusements oldate for Poince of the graph operator there.

MORE PASTEUR PATIENTS.

It came to know him as a very affectionate husband and the best of fathers. Notwark his was most lovacie disposition and temperament.

Simple as were his pleasures his health his sent the brain of his doc not high tide to-night. Only seven of eightest the brain of the brai

LIZZIE IS INDICTED. Morning Fire.

He and His Sister Accused of Main- A Tramp's Pipe Supposed to Have Started the Blaze.

Their Long Island City Property the Panic-Stricken Tenants Jumped for

Following is a list of the dead and injured : The Dead.

Early visitors at Central Park this morning were filled with indignation at the discovery that some miscreant had been going abou during the night with a pot of green paint daubing a number of the statues on the Mall. Among the statues which were thus disfig-police saw nothing of the intruder, and it is not known at what hour he made his rounds, but it is supposed to have been early in the morning, for the paint was still wet and ured by the vandal were those of Scott, Burns,

Beethoven and several others. The Park

The motive for this piece of vandalism can-The police authorities at the Park are now

ASSAULT ON THE STEAMER DREW Watchman Arrested for an Offense Against a Female Passenger. | LEX ABSOCIATED PRESS. | ALBANY, Dec. 2. — Charles Liebstraube.night

tion and arrest of the offender.

Long Island City's Postmaster De- has been arrested for committing an assault discussion of their bimetallic plans, in ac watchman of the People's line steamer Drew. upon a young German girl named Augusta Less Island City, Dec. 2.—Rumors of denciency in the accounts of Postmaster Richenstein fill the air. Inspector Morris, of New York, and an assistant have, it is said, been investigating idehenstein's accounts for the less three days.

tarden shows no diminution in attendance, and its managers have to realize a handsome sum by the end of the week. The booths did a rusking business had right and the crowdors was larger than at any time dusting the week.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Miss Borden Held for the Murder

Three Counts in the Bill Presented

Old Straws of Evidence Threshed Over Before the Finding.

INT ASSOCIATED PRESS. TAUNTON, Mass., Dec. 2.—Lizzie Borden had share of her father's estate are the moti killed by blows from an axe or hatch well and quietly done that the servant

THE MONETARY CONFERENCE.

INT ASSOCIATED PRESS. BRUSSELS, Dec. 2.—The report of the Mone-tary Conference Committee was submitted this afternoon. It declares that Mr. de Rothe-child's proposals are of great interest and worthy of full discussion, but the Committee, by a vote of 7 to 6, declined to recom their adoption.

The report concludes with the statement of the American, Mexican and Indian de with reference to the future action of their countries. This statement is not yet o

The American delegates regard the positi cheerfully. The way is now cleared for a full

Had a Narrow Escape. There is a capsized boat sticking in the past three days.

The post-office inspectors decline to discuss the case. Fost-master indicension decides that his accounts are being investigated.

Capt. Hoe, of the Drew, which got into her dock in New York at 8 octoor this morning, satirity an aversis of Worth reporter; that his accounts are being investigated.

Capt. Hoe, of the Drew, which got into her much in Great South Bay. It has been there satirity an aversis of Worth reporter; the satirity and william Erd-

The fact of Mr. Gould's death soon flashed it was evident that the great financier was about the neighborhood. A servant passed rapidly nearing death; so rapidly, in fact, from window to window in the Gould house House, at Figuth avenue and Twenty-third avenue from the place where he shed, his street, which was given him by his father on once was in the casement of the house. Dog Feared to have Hables. that the end was merely a question of hours. and drew down the curtains Frescally a young lady passed out of the hits twenty-first bi thday. He has an ample There were only misself, myself and a tole- New cas. N. J., Dec. C. - Dr. L. H. Sattler house and halled a passing stage. Asked fortune of his own, being several times a a written request to Dr. Munn for a state- Grant's physician, at her home, grast sixty-

FAULKNER TOOK POISON,

It is wise and all means of escape to the family sitting cit off.

The Senator's Son Commits Suicide at Bellevue.

J. Ross Faulkner, a young student of the New York University Medical College, committed suicide at an early hour this morning in the room of James White, Assistant Chemisto Relevue Hospital.

Faulkner, who was twenty-two years old and who had been in the habit of calling on Mr. White and spending the night on a loung in his room, came to Bellevue Hospital last night and several hours in the company of Mr. White and spending the night on a loung of Mr. White and spending the night on a loung of Mr. White and several hours in the company of Mr. White and several other persons, and seemed to be in excellent spirits.

He played on a guitar and sang until Mr. Borden was killed in the family sitting filled with smook and all means of escape.

The hird floor was occupied by Michael boyle, his wife and deight children. They did not hear the crites and early hour this morning in the room of James White, Assistant Chemisto Relievue Hospital.

Faulkner, who was twenty-two years old and who had been in the habit of calling on Mr. White and spending the night on a loung on Mr. White and several hours in the company of Mr. White and several other persons, and seemed to be in excellent spirits.

He played on a guitar and sang until Mr. White referred, when Faulkner also lay down upon the lounge and presently weat to sleen.

At alount 3 o'clock this morning Mr. White White and several other persons, and the player ment. None of them was seriously bridge and presently weat to sleen.

The joined to find the street pay menet, and the street payement, and the street payement, and calling to those below him, dropped his youngest chilit, a baby, to the ground and was hanging from it just the fill the payer of the payer and the seven children who were hudies at late to the fall the f

GEORGE J. GOULD.

GEORGE J. GOULD.

GEORGE J. GOULD.

Of Western Union Telegraph, worth at toAt 1 o'clock this morning all the lights in the house except those in the stell-room in the stell-room in the house except those in the stell-room in t show that he has provided for a proper management of his large estate so as not to cause disturbances to values. "I do not care to say more. It would be unbecoming at this time to speak of Mr. Gould's private affairs. I am too much over.

think cut what would be fitting to say in this G. P. Morosini, Once Gould's Partner, this city. Giovanni P. Morosini, who was once clerk,

"But he was always delicate-well in the win 1880, when he live I just ac oss Fifth of Her Old Father.

by the Grand Jury.

ing in the house heard nothing of any die

turbance. Lizzie Borden di

Votes That Beat Mr. de Rothschild's Plan in the Committee.

The Committee declared in favor of that portion of Marity Levy's plan which refers to he gradual withdrawal of all gold of under the value of twenty france and also of all small bank-notes below a certain value.

The rejection of Mr. de Rothschild's sche was accomplished by the votes of the dellaand Sweden and Russia.

RESCUED JUST IN TIME.

The Letter-Cirriers Fair of Madison Square New York had been evidently lost off the

May Get Fcows Out To-Night

Duck Hunters Wissner and Erdlop